Special Four-Day Course on
Maharishi Vedic Organic Agriculture & Gardening

Thursday 8pm March 4 - Monday 4pm March 8

This fascinating course provides a practical understanding of methods & techniques of organic agriculture and gardening and shows how sustainable methods are in accord with natural law. Topics include: purity of the soil, Vedic sounds, maximising nutrition. The course is laid out in accord with Maharishi's latest guidelines in the form of Damaru; the alternation of synthesis and analysis - a technique to structure enlightenment.

Led by Dr Peter Swan, currently Minister of Communication of the Global Country of World Peace. Dr. Swan worked for 12 years under Maharishi's guidance, setting up and running Maharishi Vedic Organic Agriculture projects on 4 continents.

Course Fee: £240. Accommodation from £18 a night. Meals - Lunch: £9 Supper: £7. Self-catering or lunch only options. All inclusive fee: £376.
